

PHILADELPHIA'S MAGIC GARDENS REOPENS IN APRIL

PMG will welcome guests for in-person visits starting Thursday, April 1

WHAT:

Philadelphia's Magic Gardens (PMG) is excited to open our doors again after being closed for winter! General admission tickets are now available online for April. The previous COVID restrictions will be in place, including a limited number of tickets available per timeslot (and tickets must be purchased ahead of time online), and mandatory mask-wearing by all staff and visitors over 5 years old. For a full list of restrictions please visit PMG's website.

PMG will also be offering 6-person guided tours, called Morning Magic Tours, on Wednesday and Friday mornings at 10:00 AM, before the museum opens for the day. The first tour will be offered on Friday, April 2. Tickets for both general admission and Morning Magic Tours are available on PMG's website.
