

MAKE A BOTTLE CAP GARDEN ORNAMENT AT PECO FAMILY JAMS

Join Ricky Boscarino of Luna Parc at Philadelphia's Magic Gardens for a unique family-friendly event

WHAT:

Philadelphia's Magic Gardens (PMG) is thrilled to welcome Ricky Boscarino of Luna Parc as our Teaching Artist for August's PECO Family Jams event!

Nestled among the northwestern woods of New Jersey is a 5,000-square foot castle of art surrounded by winding mosaic walls, bowling-ball gardens, and a pergola made of lapis-blue bottles. This remarkable art environment, known as Luna Parc, is the home of its creator Ricky Boscarino. On August 14, Boscarino comes to PMG to teach visitors how to turn all of our plastic bottle lids into fanciful garden ornaments like those which hang outside his kitchen.

PECO Family Jams are PMG's one-of-a-kind, family-oriented programs, featured every second Sunday of the month between NOON and 4:00 PM. Tours of the fully mosaicked basement are part of this program. No reservations are required for PECO Family Jams, but admission tickets should be purchased in advance.

WHERE:

Philadelphia's Magic Gardens
1020 South Street
Philadelphia, PA 19147

WHEN:

Sunday, August 14, 2022
12:00 – 4:00 PM

WHO:

-Ricky Boscarino of Luna Parc
-Silke Tudor from Philadelphia's Magic Gardens

HOW:

The event is free with admission. General Admission tickets can be purchased via www.phillymagicgardens.com.

Media Contact: Allison Boyle, events@phillymagicgardens.org
(O) 215-733-0390 ext. 114

#